Dear Bradley Turner Servant Leadership Funds Applicant,

A central part of your work as future Servant Leaders will be to share your experiences and learning with those around you to help them become- as Robert Greenleaf envisioned it- 'wiser, freer, more autonomous' persons thereby increasing the capacity of institutions and organizations to create a better society.

In reflection of this responsibility and to ensure that awarded funds are spent in the intended spirit of the gift from the Bradley Turner Foundation we ask you to submit a one-page (minimum) reflection paper no later than a month after the completion of the funded program. In your write-up please present an overview of how the Bradley Turner resources were spent and a summary of the activities you and your group engaged in. We will post excerpts of your accounts on our website to inspire future participation in the program. Reflection papers should be emailed to dori.pap@ile.gatech.edu.
